

FREQUENTLY ASKED NOMINATION QUESTIONS

- What qualifies someone for nomination?
 - The family or individual must be facing a financial hardship due to a medical condition, injury or death in their immediate family.
 - The family or individual must reside in Elmhurst, Illinois or attend schools in Elmhurst, Illinois.
 - The family or individual must be willing to meet with the No Frills Nomination Committee prior to selection.
- Can I nominate someone who is no longer living?
 - Yes. If a family or individual is facing hardships due to a death in their immediate family, they would qualify as a beneficiary of our organization.
- Can I nominate myself?
 - Yes. You can nominate yourself if you meet the eligibility requirements.
- Can I nominate a family who was already a recipient?
 - Yes. If a family has a new situation for consideration, we encourage you to submit a new nomination. A family may not be a recipient more than one time for the same situation. If a family has been nominated in the past, but has not been selected as a beneficiary of NFFR, we encourage you to submit a new nomination.
- Can I nominate a family who has already been nominated this year by someone else?
 - Yes. We will review ALL nominations.
- How does the Nomination Committee make their selection?
 - First, the Committee ensures that the nominated families fulfill the eligibility requirements. The Committee will give careful consideration to the information being provided by the nominator, with the heaviest weighted factor being the financial need and the ability of NFFR to make a difference in their situation. The Committee will meet with the family before a final decision is made.
- Will I be notified if my nominee is selected or not selected as the beneficiary?
 - After the final selection is made, Nominators will be notified if their nominee wasn't selected prior to any public announcement of the chosen beneficiary.
- How and when is the gift disbursed?
 - The gift will be disbursed on or before May 31st.
- Is the family or individual taxed on the disbursement?
 - Although any amounts received under $50,000 are typically not taxed; please consult with your accountant or tax specialist for advice on your specific situation.
